

Students Will Meet Popular English Author

Charles Morgan to be on College Campus Week of April 27.

Mrs. Morgan Also Novelist

Miss Blanche Dow, Entertainment Committee Chairman, Announces Schedule of Activities.

The arrival on the campus of Charles Morgan, English novelist, and his wife, Hilda Vaughan, a Welsh novelist, April 27 will begin a week of rare opportunity and inspiration to the students.

The writers will be at the College all that week, when Mr. Morgan will lecture at assemblies, small informal gatherings and hold individual conferences with the students.

Author of such books as "Portrait in a Mirror," "The Fountain," and "Sparkenbroke," Charles Morgan at one time was on the London Times as principal dramatic critic.

Although the schedule for the week is not complete, Miss Blanche H. Dow, chairman of the committee on entertainments, has announced the following plans:

Monday afternoon, April 27, 4 o'clock—a lecture by Mr. Morgan in the Horace Mann auditorium on the subject, "A Defense of Story-Telling."

Wednesday morning, April 29, 10 o'clock—a lecture on "The Stream of History," in the auditorium of the administration building.

Thursday night, April 30, 8:15 o'clock—lecture in the Horace Mann auditorium on the subject, "The Creative Imagination."

The public is invited to these lectures.

A faculty tea is being planned for Wednesday afternoon of that week at which Mr. and Mrs. Morgan will be honored guests. They will be guests of Miss Anna M. Painter, head of the department of English, at her home Tuesday night, following which Mr. Morgan will talk informally to students majoring in English.

Miss Estella Bowman of the English department, who has read and reviewed several works of Charles Morgan, points out that the novelist stresses the "creative imagination" in his writings. Along with this, she said, he believes in "the singleness of mind," that is, one must put everything else aside in favor of this idea.

In general his works illustrate the idea that the artist brings his imagination so to bear on his material that there is wrought a spiritual change, from something inanimate, without form or meaning, to something of inspiration and stirring reality. An artist is in the world to listen as well as to speak, to gather in as well as give out; through him mankind may re-create itself.

Charles Morgan has described "creative art" as "that power to be for the moment a flash of communication between God and man." He urges that there be love working with the creative imagination, and believes that a word or a group of words is transformed into actual living substance by the touch of imagination.

Newman Club Conference Attended by Students

Mary Ann Busby, president of the Newman Club of the College, and Frances Meyer, secretary, were delegates to the Convention of the Central States Province of Newman Clubs held at Kansas State College at Fort Hays, Kansas, on April 10, 11, and 12. Delegates were present from Iowa State College, Kansas State College at Manhattan, University of Illinois, Illinois State Normal University, University of Nebraska, and from the host college.

On Friday night, the delegates were entertained by a play given by the Little Theater group and an informal dance. Meetings were held Saturday morning at which each school gave a report of the year's club activities. On Saturday afternoon, the Reverend Edwin Dorzweiler led a discussion on "Our Program for Victory" in which club organization, planning, and working was related to the defense effort. The group attended Mass in a body on Sunday morning and officers for the coming year were elected at a breakfast following the service. Frances Meyer from Maryville was elected recording secretary of the Province for next year.

Mary Ann was chairman of the Constitutions and Resolutions Committee this year. She was the only person in the Province who had attended all four of the Province meetings which have been held since the organization was initiated.

The members of the committee for this Sunday Morning Hour program are: Sue Moore, chairman, Don Moreland, Maxine Cook, Jean Gilpin and Chester Parks.

This program is to be given by the freshmen class and the committee urges that all freshmen attend.

Music Students to Present Recital

JACK GARRETT

EDWARD JOHNSON

Two Seek Office of President

Jack Garrett Possesses Many Qualifications for Office.

Jack Garrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Garrett, has filed his name in the race for the Presidency of the Student Government Association of Maryville State Teacher's College. Jack is well-liked on our campus, having many friends and contacts with students, faculty, and townspeople.

Jack received his diploma from College High School in the Spring of 1939. During his last two years of high school he was President of the Junior Class and President of the Student body. He also had a high scholarship record which brought him the honor of being Salutatorian of his graduating class.

In the past three years of his college career Jack has served both his school and the town of Maryville in a splendid manner. He has been a member and leader of the Boy Scout organization for eight years and holds the silver palm of the Eagle Scout Award. He is now serving as Assistant Scoutmaster of Troop 75. Last year Jack was President of Alpha Phi Omega, the National Service Fraternity on our campus.

Jack is well qualified for the office of President of the Student body. He has served in the student senate for six terms and this year is Secretary of the Senate. Such experience will serve him well should he be elected. This spring he is working on the committee which is making plans for the re-opening of the Student Center.

He is an active member of the Barkatze Pep Organization and served as its vice-president one year. He also is a member of Phi Sigma Epsilon social fraternity on the campus.

When asked what campaign plans he intended to follow, Jack gave the following statement: "Each student in the college is entitled to vote in the coming election. It is a privilege that many students in other places do not have. I hope that each student will exercise his right to vote and that each student will cast his vote for the candidate who is best qualified whoever he or she may be. This election is for the students, and the students should put in office the person they want. Political campaigning is out of place in such an election."

Independents and "M" Club Sponsor Athlete, Eddie Johnson.

"More students should realize that it is very important for all to voice their opinions in student affairs. With the world in such a turmoil I feel that the students of this campus should be very glad that they have a democratic student government." So said Eddie Johnson, Independent Club candidate for president of the student body.

Eddie is a Junior and hails from Calhoun, Missouri. Every one who knows Eddie, and there are few on this campus who don't, realize that he would make a steady, dependable, and trustworthy president.

He has proven himself superior in his major field by being a member of the "M Club" three years and receiving three letters in basketball. Every one remembers Eddie as the cheerful captain of this year's basketball team.

Another important consideration is this: many young men are being drafted. It is important, then, for the students of this college to select a man who is apt to be here next year. Eddie Johnson will be allowed to complete his college work under the Navy V-1 program.

Librarians Meet to Discuss State Laws

Paul L. Vogt Describes Library Work for Rural Regions.

One of the problems which faced librarians who attended a district meeting here on the campus Wednesday of the Missouri Library Commission was that of taking steps to change the state law pertaining to libraries which makes it necessary for each county to set up its own library.

The plan which the commission is promoting would make it possible for three or four counties to combine in establishing a central library. The proposal would have to be presented to a convention of the Missouri Library Association in the fall.

L. M. Nourse, librarian in the Kansas City public library, discussed this law at the meeting held in the College library Wednesday following a luncheon at Residence Hall. He also praised the increase in county libraries which has been achieved through state aid and federal aid through WPA.

Mrs. F. B. Fulkerson of Higginsville spoke in behalf of the Citizens' Council for Missouri Libraries and discussed promotion plans for establishing new libraries. She described the organization set-up for getting voters interested in the library projects.

Give Assembly Program

An assembly in the morning attended by the student body, as well as the visiting librarians, Paul L. Vogt, senior social scientist in the United States department of agriculture, told what the department of agriculture is doing through the libraries to acquaint people with facts. They are attempting, he said, to bring rural communities together to discuss their problems, share their ideas and clarify their thinking. In connection with the plan, it would be necessary to see that the community libraries have adequate material available on the problems of these people so that a study could be carried on. Mr. Vogt led a discussion group in the afternoon session of the meeting.

Visiting librarians at the meeting were: Miss Virginia Walton, Kansas City, district library supervisor of the WPA; Miss Frances Davidson, Platte City, area project supervisor of the WPA; Harry E. Clinton, Kansas City, first assistant accession department, Kansas City public library; Miss Grace Langan, public library, Maryville; Louis M. Nourse, Kansas City public library, president of the Missouri Library Association; Mrs. Frank B. Fulkerson of Higginsville, president of the Citizens' Council for Missouri Libraries; Mrs. Hazel Call Gage, Jefferson City, state library supervisor of the WPA; Miss Ruth Lowery of the College faculty, a member of the Carnegie Library Board of Maryville; Mrs. Clara Heath, assistant librarian in the Maryville public library; Miss Adria Ferrero, Platte City, senior library clerk in the Platte county library; Miss Mary Singer, Platte City, senior library clerk in the Platte county library.

C. E. Wells, College librarian, Miss Margaret Owen, assistant College librarian and Miss Lucile Brumbaugh, associate librarian at the College, also attended the meeting.

Finish Extension

Miss Mary Fisher and Mr. Eugene Seubert finished the extension courses which they had been teaching on Saturday of last week. Miss Fisher had been teaching a course in industrial arts for elementary grades at Richmond, Mr. Seubert had been teaching courses in English 131, American Literature, at Richmond and at Hamilton.

Book Club Meets

Miss Estella Bowman discussed the works of Charles Morgan at the April meeting of the Book Club on Monday evening, April 13. This discussion was of particular interest since Mr. Morgan will be visiting on the campus this month.

In addition to the regular members of the Book Club, Mrs. J. W. Jones, Dr. Ruth Lowery, and Mr. Eugene Seubert were also guests.

Walter Henry Is Visitor

Walter H. Henry, of Sheridan, Wyoming, has been visiting his daughter, Dorothea L. Henry, a senior at the College. Mr. Henry is associated with a dude ranch in Sheridan.

Navy Secretary Sends Message

Northwest Missouri State Teachers College, Maryville, Mo.

Great Lakes, Ill., April 10, 1942

The Navy is proud that your College has undertaken our V-1 plan for training freshmen and sophomores as officer material. Please tell your young men who apply for enlistment and training under this plan that they will be serving the nation if they continue their College courses no less than those of your alumni who are already in active service. The Navy knows your institution and your V-1 students will do their part.

Frank Knox, Sec'y of the Navy

Barbara Garrett Will Run for Vice-presidency

Along with the election of a Student Body President we must also elect a vice-president. To many it may seem an easy office to fulfill, but when a former vice-president is asked, we find that the vice-president should be just as qualified, experienced, and capable as the president. At any time the vice-president may be called upon to take the place of the president. Therefore we see that it is important for the vice-president to be a qualified individual.

Among our student body is a girl who I believe is well qualified to carry this office. She has served several terms in the Student Senate; thereby she is very familiar with the functions of that organization. She is a member of the Residence Hall Council, which gives her further experience in the student affairs of this College. She also takes great interest in other activities. She belongs to the Green and White Peppers which shows that she has a stimulating personality.

Also, last but not least, she maintains a high grade average. Therefore it gives me great pleasure to say, "Let's elect Barbara Garrett as our Vice President."

Students May Attend "Candle in the Wind"

Helen Hayes will appear in Maxwell Anderson's new play, "Candle in the Wind" in Kansas City on May 8 and 9. The play is about an American actress who is betrothed to a French newspaperman who is also an anti-Nazi soldier. If enough people from the College are interested in going to see the play, the college bus will take a group to the matinee on May 9.

Tickets may be secured through the Play-Goers League by contacting Miss Marian Lippitt, director of personnel for women. The cost for the ticket and transportation will be $1.75, $2.00, $2.50, $3.00, and $3.50. Anyone who wishes to see the play on Friday evening may secure tickets from Miss Lippitt at the advance sale which is at the Play-Goers League prices.

First Bird Walk Held Last Saturday Morning

The season's opening "Bird Walk" was held Saturday morning, from 7:00 until 9:00 o'clock. In spite of the cold the birds were active and twenty-two species were observed.

Personnel of the walk consisted of Mary McNeil, Harriet Harvey, Elleen Isom, Edgar Boner, Carl Owens, Charles Wright, Winston Wells, and Mr. W. T. Garrett of the Biology department.

The earth's axis continually points in the same direction.

Tower Goes to Press

"The Tower" has gone to the printer. The staff is rejoicing.

You will have your book by May 20 at least—maybe sooner, for the printer said the copy had been received in plenty of time.

Without giving away any secrets, it is safe to say that "The Tower" this year has some innovations. For the first time in many years, students have done the art work.

Miss Olive S. DeLuce, head of the fine arts department, directed the drawings that appear on the introductory and division pages. You may have seen Helen Boyersmith, Frances Carmean, Helen Clisco or Lloyd Hutchinson chasing around with their incomplete drawings and you may know what they were, but if you didn't it will have to remain a secret until "The Tower" arrives, because we aren't telling.

Last weekend Donald Cummins, editor, and Marvin Motherhead, business manager, went to Kansas City, accompanied by Miss Helen Kramer, adviser, to make final plans regarding the yearbook. Because the staff had worked unusually hard and had been prompt in turning in their assignments, the editor was able to turn the book over to the printer slightly ahead of the deadline, which, in turn, enables him to escape the eleventh hour rush and deliver the goods ahead of schedule.

Other members of the staff who spent long hours mounting pictures, writing copy, planning and attending meetings were Peggy Cunningham, Mary Margaret Tilton, Elizabeth Davis, Alice Noland, Kenneth Weedlin, Robert Flowers, Paul Smith and Dennis Davidson.

Other members of the Art Club who worked on drawings were Anabel Anderson, Betty Campbell, Virginia Dorman, Mildred Goldner, Shirley Hallen, Jean Frances Young, and Celeste Bender.

To celebrate the completion of the book, Miss Kramer has invited the members of "The Tower" staff to a 10 o'clock breakfast at her home Sunday morning.

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

SEVERAL REASONS FOR VOTING

Mayorality elections in Kansas City, St. Joseph and other cities have recently attracted the attention of college people. "Good government" and "right of franchise" have been phrases used again and again. Another saying heard recently during elections runs somewhat like this—the United States is one of the few remaining countries of the world where people are allowed to vote as they please. Exercise that privilege.

Next week the students of this college will vote for a president and a vice-president. Last year there were 415 votes cast when the students numbered approximately 725. It is more important than ever that students vote this year. In the first place there are about a hundred fewer students enrolled than last year; in order to make a good showing there will have to be a greater proportion of the student body voting. In the second place there is war in progress. During time of war activities not relating directly to the war effort are examined carefully to determine whether or not the war effort can function just as well without that particular activity. The Student Government Association handles quite a bit of money in the course of a year. The best method of justifying the ability of the students to manage some of their own affairs is to vote next week—and let the figures speak.

Quotable Quotes

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

"Much legislation requires for its successful administration and execution the active co-operation of large public bodies, in some cases the voters and citizens of the country as a whole. Once public opinion reflected in acts of congress has given definite expression to policy it is the function of the administrative branch to give effect to it. This point is illustrated by the situation a country faces in war-time. Before a decision on the question of war has been decided by the legally responsible authorities, freedom to advocate varied, even conflicting policies is the recognized privilege of unofficial groups and individuals. But after a state has once decided on a policy, has definitely declared war, the use of administrative publicity and propaganda may be absolutely necessary for its successful conduct."—Dr. Harwood L. Childs, associate professor of politics at Princeton university, sees a logical place for propaganda in the democratic state.

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

"Throughout the world the sun's varying position, and the consequent system of seasons, and the planetary circulation of the atmosphere, have resulted in zones with a general east-west trend. Climatic conditions, flora and fauna follow parallel bands from east to west. This zoning is significant in the lives of men as well, and man is not immune to the potent influence of these planetary factors. In human affairs there is a strong tendency toward the same zoning along parallels of latitude and a strong tendency toward dissimilarity along the meridians. North-south lines are weaker than those from east to west. Cleavage tends to take place along lines of parallels. Political disaffection between north and south is more common than between east and west. 'North is north and south is south, and never the twain shall meet' is probably truer than the more familiar form of Kipling's phrase. Our own national history gives but one of many examples of cleavage along these lines; so also does that of China, Ireland, and the European continent as a whole. One need not have much fear, or hope, of long life for the Rome-Berlin axis; it stretches across too many degrees of latitude."—Dr. George M. McBride, professor of geography at the University of California.

From the Dean

THE PRICELESS INGREDIENTS OF EVERY PRODUCT ARE THE HONOR AND INTEGRITY OF ITS MAKER.

I saw these lines in an advertisement of a manufactured product but it seems to me that college people should ponder over them. What is our product as college students? What do we plan to sell to those who employ us? Surely one answer to these questions is that we plan to sell our services as teachers of boys and girls living in communities. This product will contain priceless ingredients which will become the reputation of the maker.

With the increasing demand for trained workers in the war production field, Dr. G. Oscar Robinson, state NYA administrator has announced that the shop facilities of this organization in Missouri includes 77 shops, 51 of which are already approved National Defense Shops. The combined floor space of these shops in the state is approximately six acres. The total investment is about $1,125,000 and the total shop training capacity at present is 3,500 youth.

Every large city in the state has one or more work centers, with three or more shops; and many of the smaller cities have at least one shop. Missouri has the only National Youth Administration plant in the country which is capable of producing drop-forged tools on a mass production basis. This is at Louisiana, Mo. This state also has the only NYA handmaking shop in the country and it is located at Nevada, Mo.

Of these 77 shops, 12 are machine shops, 9 are sheet metal shops, 10 are welding shops, 7 are radio and electrical shops, 9 are forge and blacksmithing shops, 11 are wood-working shops and 7 are sewing shops.

From July 1, 1941 to January 30, 1942, 21,257 pieces have been produced in the general metal shops, which include over 100 different articles. Of these there were more than 5,000 pieces such as screws, nuts, bolts, pins and plates, requiring high precision machining, which were produced for one of the U. S. arsenals for use in army tanks. Now scheduled for production are more than 65,000 items, since the work already done received a rating of 85 per cent of acceptable items, which is claimed by the arsenal to be comparable to many of their private sources of supply.

The woodworking shops during this same period turned out 30,945 pieces, which included more than 200 different articles. Over 9,000 pieces were for the United States army, items such as office furniture, special equipment for recreational areas, dummy guns for drill purposes, and rifle cleaning racks.

The NYA sewing shops turned out 247,986 pieces while giving the girls industrial training to prepare them for employment in those shops having war orders. The 200 articles making up this number of pieces included 18,000 pellet bags for the Medical Quartermasters Depot and 75,000 mechanic wiping cloths for one of the arsenals. There is now scheduled for production in NYA sewing shops 15,000 mattress covers for the Quartermasters Division of the army.

In the radio work shops, inter-communication systems have been made for installation in several of the army camps located in Missouri and for the United States Coast Guard. An elaborate central radio reception unit was also installed for use throughout the Mt. Vernon State Hospital, making radio reception available to each patient's bed.

Examinations Will Be Held for Civil Service

College graduates and senior students show much interest in our Junior Professional Assistant examination announced annually for Government positions in the Junior professional and scientific grades, paying $2,000 a year. These positions require no experience. The Commission is announcing a new examination for these positions. The eligible list will also be used to fill positions at $1,800, $1,620 and $1,440 a year. A copy of the announcement is enclosed.

Those who are on the eligible list as the result of previous Junior Professional Assistant examinations need not take the new examination. In certain fields, applicants may apply under other announcements as follows:

Architects	No. 222
Astronomers	No. 179
Chemists	No. 219
Engineers	No. 122 or 172
Metallurgists	No. 210
Meteorologists	No. 127
Physicists	No. 138
Technologists	No. 188
Veterinarians	No. 143

No written test is required under these announcements.

The annual examination, announced in January, included a number of options; the new examination is announced for all branches of junior professional and scientific work, but eligibles are particularly desired in the fields of Public Administration, Business Analysis, Economics, Home Economics, Library Science, and Mathematics through Calculus.

Applicants must have completed a four-year college course, or must be enrolled in the last semester or last quarter of the senior year. Those who meet these and other entrance requirements will be given a written test to measure their general knowledge and aptitudes. The Commission is planning to give this test early in May, hoping to establish the eligible lists the first week in June so that appointments can be begun as soon as possible.

The proper application forms may be obtained at any first- or second-class post office or by writing to our Washington office. Applications must be forwarded so as to be received in this office not later than April 27. Particular attention is invited to the provision in the announcement for filing the residence form where the applicant cannot file it by the closing date for receipt of applications.

THE POCKETBOOK of KNOWLEDGE BY TOPPS

The Stroller

Spring, spring, beautiful spring. Spring is really here in all its glory now! (Of course, it will probably rain tomorrow). The Stroller is strolling, the birds are singing, the golfers are golfing, the skaters are skating, and that's entirely too much for that. Anyway, we're all very happy about the whole thing.

Some of the faculty are the victims of spring—or is it the victory garden program. Anyway they are planning to make gardens this year. The Stroller is expecting to find some creaky knees and sore muscles disturbing certain faculty members, particularly the men.

"Buddy" Bollenblast and "Wenzie" Gray are now going steady. Those "Golden Gloves" really won her heart. You know stray men are almost becoming a thing of the past on this campus.

Jim Cook was rather insulted that the Stroller didn't give him credit for hanging his frat pin down at Maryville high school. Really Jim, the Bayings of a Spoofohound, gave you so much publicity, the Stroller was afraid you would get conceited if he, too, enlarged on the subject.

The C. A. P. demonstration Sunday at the airport was a popular gathering place for the students. The Stroller, who is also rather air minded, decided that the "crash landing" turned out to be almost too realistic.

The Stroller enjoyed the little reference on the book fine list down on the bulletin board. The one referring to Betty June Harazin. It was almost as brilliant as the ones he usually finds on the telephone call board. Some people have nothing much to do, except write a half-witted column called the Stroller.

Among the most recent couples the Stroller has noticed during his evening strolls are John Seyforth and Margaret Irwin, J. R. Gregory and Eleanor Peck, Franklin Palm and Jan Jordan, Will Miller and Jenny Rose Bennett, Art Schmager and Marjorie Coates, and David Murphy and Marian Nunnelly.

The Stroller was a little surprised to learn that Brother Reporter, Ernest Ploughshare, I mean, Ploughoff, has a secret affair on the campus. The Stroller is in the mood for a fight this week so —O O O here goes nothing. The Stroller didn't intend to insult the Quad men in his reference a few week back, but really they should use a little more intelligence in letting some of their inhabitants run loose at night.

Soon we can expect some hot and heavy campaign work. The usual feud between the Greek letter candidates and the Independents will go on and on and on. Of course, we don't know how it will come out, but we all have our favorites.

The Country Club lake will soon be the scene of night life, swimmers and otherwise. Queer how our indoor events soon move outdoors, isn't it?

From now on the calendar on the Stroller's desk is a mass of events. Dances, banquets, recitals, et cetera. The Stroller is about ready to hire two assistants to help in the last minute rush. Before that though he has the unfinished business of throwing a certain typewriter out of a window to do.

Here the Stroller must leave you all right in the midst of mid-term exams and spring contests, but life will go on just the same next week. Dr. Klempell will still be a drug-store cowboy, Mr. Cook will still have an interest in the publicity department, classes will still be meeting (we hope not) and the Stroller will still be strolling.

Pi Omega Pi Has Spring Banquet

Beta Chapter Admits One to Membership—Pauline Liggett.

Beta Chapter of Pi Omega Pi donned formal dress last Saturday evening for their annual spring formal banquet. The Maryville Country Club offered a perfect setting for a banquet "filled" with personality. The place cards took the form of stock certificates in a Personality Company; and this theme was carried out further in the after dinner speeches given by Mr. Rudin, acting chairman of the Speech Department, and Mr. Nece, acting chairman of the Commerce Department. In Mr. Rudin's speech, "Business Discovers the Customer," he pointed out how invaluable such things as tactfulness, thoughtfulness and ability to influence others were if we expect to find a buyer for whatever we may have to sell. Clever illustrations and "true to life" examples enabled him to sell his ideas or "goods" to an interested audience. Mr. Nece made a talk on "Important Personalities in Commercial Education" that was both inspiring and informational. Although he was accused of inserting some stories now and then that had no bearing on the subject, everyone agrees that he has a good supply of entertaining tales.

It was a rather elaborate banquet to be given in honor of just one new member, but the chapter feels that the new member, Miss Pauline Liggett, is very deserving of such an honor. P. A. Stewart, president, gave the welcome speech to the new active; and Helen Johnson, corresponding secretary, acted as toast-master at the banquet. Barbara Leet, chairman of decorations and place-cards, reported that twenty-three people were present. Of these Miss Hope Wray, secretary for Captain Shultz at the airport, and Miss Lavinia Stojer, now teaching at Maryville High School, were the only alumni present. Honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. Rudin and Mr. and Mrs. Nece. The sponsor, Miss Inez Lewis of the Commerce Department, was also at the banquet.

Only Lower Bracket Can Attend Tabor College

TABOR, IOWA — (ACP) — A unique college, which will accept only those boys who finish high school in the lowest 25 per cent of their class, has been established in this southwest Iowa town of fewer than 1,000 residents.

This amazing entrance requirement, setting the educational world topsy-turvy, was created by Dr. Robert Enlow O'Brien, preacher, educator, politician and businessman, the new president of Tabor college.

Former president of Morningside college at Sioux City, and former Iowa secretary of state, Dr. O'Brien has always wanted to run a college for the "lower one-fourth" who seldom get invitations to college campuses these days. Last winter he got his chance. The president of Tabor resigned, and the college opened its second closing in its 80-year history. Some of the trustees asked Dr. O'Brien to take over. He agreed, on the understanding that he could introduce his scholarship ideas.

Last September the school opened with a dozen students; Dr. O'Brien hopes to add 26 each semester, until the maximum of 200, set by the new laws, is reached. The course is what Dr. O'Brien describes as the "old liberal arts course, brought up to date." All students must master typing and shorthand, as well as German and Spanish.

English composition is taught as a "remedial" course, stressing correct spelling and use of clear, coherent, proper sentences. Mathematics is of the statistical and accounting varieties. The rest of the course follows traditional liberal arts lines.

Graduates should be able to enter business or industry, Dr. O'Brien feels. He hopes to see them get jobs as private secretaries, shipping clerks and similar positions, and "with the prestige of an A. B. degree and the training of a solid, practical course behind them," he believes they can work up to higher executive posts or to ownership of their own businesses in a few years.

Part of the school's programs, says Dr. O'Brien, is to have students entertained occasionally by business men so they get to know what these men are like and learn to talk their language. There will be no intercollegiate athletics, because Dr. O'Brien feels that they add nothing of value to the student's life.

However, every boy must master some sport that he can use throughout life, such as hunting, fishing, bowling and billiards.

No rules are to be invoked, except those made by the boys themselves.

Mrs. W. T. Garrett Will Teach Defense Course

Mrs. W. T. Garrett, wife of Mr. W. T. Garrett, chairman of the department of Biology, will begin instruction in a national defense nutrition course at Clearmont Thursday evening. The course will require eight meetings each on Thursday.

Mrs. Garrett is a former student at the Iowa State Teachers College and a graduate of the University of Dubuque, Dubuque, Iowa.

Teacher Will Speak
Mr. Eugene E. Seubert, supervisor of English in the Horace Mann school, will speak at Kildar, Missouri, on Friday, April 24, on the subject, "No Rationing in Education."

The American Rhodes Scholarships were suspended by the Rhodes trustees in 1939 and no elections have been held since.

Navy Explains "V" Program

Admiral Harold R. Stark, former chief of naval operations, once remarked that "a navy is composed of ships, men, and bases—and the most important of these are ships, men, and bases."

No one who has followed the war in the southwest Pacific can escape his now obvious conclusion that ships, men, and bases are interdependent. Many people are not aware, however, that it takes almost as long to make a sailor as it takes to build a warship—and that the Navy's greatest need, at the moment, is skilled man power. Ships to round out a mighty two-ocean fleet are on the ways, and bases are under construction from Dutch Harbor of Reykjavik; but the problem of man power is one that cannot be met by appropriations committees and construction engineers.

The Navy must build to its authorized strength of 500,000 men by an intelligent, long-range program which takes full account of the fact that "every man in the Navy is a specialist." Besides teaching more than 50 trade skills to the recruits who are streaming through its training stations, the Navy must select and train thousands of college men who by their educational backgrounds are already qualified for ratings and commissions. To this end, it has instituted a "V" program with which every undergraduate should be familiar.

To aid both the Navy and the undergraduate interested in volunteer naval service, the Northwest Missourian today presents the "A, B, C's" of the Naval Reserve's "V" program:

V-1
Pre-Indoctrination Training
This is the latest procurement plan—a plan whereby the Navy hopes to obtain 80,000 pre-indoctrinated trainees per year. College freshmen and sophomores between the ages of 17 and 19 inclusive who are of good moral character and in good physical condition may enlist in Class V-1 as apprentice seamen. After approximately three semesters, during which they will study related Navy subjects, taught by the regular college faculty, V-1 men will be given a general examination. Those ranking sufficiently high in the examination may transfer to Class V-5 or V-7 (see below) and continue their inactive status until completion of the academic requirements for those classes. Those whose scores on the examination are too low to warrant V-5 or V-7 training will be allowed to complete the 4-semester indoctrination course and then be called to active duty as apprentice seamen. For further information or enlistment consult your college registrar.

V-2
Naval Aviation Mechanics
This is an opportunity for men between the ages of 17 and 28 inclusive with limited experience or demonstrable interest in internal combustion engines or metal work. Men whose eyesight bars them from flying the Navy's warbirds can help keep 'em flying by enlisting in this classification at the nearest recruiting office. They will receive 26 weeks intensive training which will qualify them for petty officers' ratings as aviation machinists and aviation metalmiths.

V-3
Naval Communications
Here is the opening for men interested in wireless and visual signals. They must enlist as apprentice seamen, but will be sent to a communications service school if, at the conclusion of their recruit training, they show a preference and aptitude for this classification. The training they receive during their first year of service is worth $1,500, according to the Navy.

V-4
Naval Intelligence
College men of "outstanding character and unquestioned reliability" with legal training or stenographic ability were formerly enlisted as yeomen ("seagoing secretaries") in this classification. Quotas were filled shortly after Pearl Harbor, but may be reopened.

V-5
Most Navy men regard this classification as THE gilt-edge opportunity in the Naval Reserve. Contrary to popular belief, you don't have to be a super man to get in. You must, however, be between the ages of 19 and 26 inclusive, unmarried, and in good shape physically. If you haven't yet finished the required two years of college, you may enlist now and continue school until you have. You will receive 90 days training at one of the 18 reserve aviation bases, then be shipped to the "Annapolis of the Air" (at Pensacola, Fla.) or to "Jax" (Jacksonville, Fla.) or "Corpus" (Corpus Christi, Tex.) for advanced training. Upon receiving your Navy "wings" and commission, you will also begin receiving $245 a month. Any Navy recruiting office will steer you (transportation paid) to the nearest Naval Aviation Cadet Selection Board.

V-7
Whether or not they are called to immediate active duty, all men are draft-exempt after enlisting in the Naval Reserve. All agree to serve for the duration of the war except aviation cadets, who agree to serve for 4 years unless released sooner by the Navy Department.

Psychologically speaking, it is sound to maintain many peace-time extra-curricular activities during war, in opinion of Dr. Paul White, University of Texas psychiatrist.

Introducing . . . David Murphy

David Murphy came to Maryville from Cairo, Illinois. He is a sophomore this year. Murphy attended Cairo High School four years and earned a letter in track every year. He was captain of the squad the last two years and those same years he received the track award for the most valuable man on the team. He holds the Schultz field record for the half mile, and was a member of three relay teams which set records. He lettered in track his freshman year at the College, winning all the races he entered but one during that season. He lacked .2 of a second to tie the MIAA record in the half mile. This season Murphy is working out on the quarter and half mile relay teams, the 220 yard dash, and the quarter mile run. Murphy also represented his team at the annual Illinois State Meet held at the University of Illinois during his senior year, 1940.

Bob Eisminger Signs With New Orleans Baseball Club

Bob Eisminger, a former student of the College, is now playing baseball with the New Orleans Pelicans of the Southern League. He left the College at the end of the Winter quarter. Eisminger has played three years in organized baseball. Last year he pitched with Batesville in the Arkansas League, and closed the season with 20 wins and 10 losses. The year before he won 14 and lost 7 for Duluth. In 207 innings he yielded 165 hits and struck out 163 men. The Southeastern League season has just begun, and in a game with Camp Shelby Eisminger allowed 6 hits and 1 run. He also took his share of the batting honors with three hits, which included a home run. A sports writer in one of the New Orleans papers made the statement that Eisminger "appears to have the makings of a fine young pitcher." In another write-up of a game the following account of Eisminger's pitching is given: ". . . a 21-year old kid named Bob Eisminger went into the box and mowed them down for six innings." Mention was also made of the fact that Wild Matthews, one of the St. Louis Cardinals field workers was looking him over. Eisminger was a sophomore in the College and was a member of Sigma Tau Gamma.

Louisiana State Finds Intelligence in Freshmen

University, La. — (ACP)—Freshman intelligence is showing an "upward trend" at Louisiana State university, according to figures released after a survey of the freshman division by Dr. E. Donald Sisson, assistant professor of psychology, and Delton C. Bel, graduate student. Rising from 246 in 1933 to 335 today, the increase occurred after 1936, when the number of new students began to decrease, the report points out. Although the averages of men and women have both shown a greater degree of rise. During the nine-year period 13,302 freshmen students were tested at the university. Music library at the University of Wisconsin contains more than 2,500 volumes of a historical, biographical, critical or scientific nature, as well as several hundred miniature scores. Random Shots

Another MIAA school has dropped track and field this season. According to the Warrensburg publication Coach Voltmer's team has been hit too hard by draft and graduation to continue. With Kirksville and Warrensburg both out of the track picture, the Springfield conference meet won't offer as much competition this year. Cape Girardeau's Indians stand a good chance of capturing first place. Elmer Barlon, the "dash flash," received a foot injury at the Peru meet last week. It will be possible for him to participate in the next meet, April 24, but he will be unable to work out for a few days. We call him the flash because anyone who can run the 100 in 9.8 this early in the season is doing all right. With the return of the spring weather Coach Milner's spring football squad is getting a good work-out. Tied for high points in the meet Friday were Charles Silvy and Ivan Schottel. In the total points garnered so far this season Schottel has 23 3-4 to Silvy's 23. Schottel is taking up where he left off last season in the shot, discus, and javelin events, while Silvy is making his first challenge as a Bearcat point maker in the two mile, the mile, and the half mile runs. Last year it was Charles' twin, Bob, who carried the Bearcat colors in the two mile run. Ralph Tritsch, sophomore high hurdler should be in good condition for the coming meets if his performance Friday is any indication. Ralph, who has been handicapped by a pulled muscle suffered in a Des Moines meet in February came through the high hurdles with ease and should get faster as the season progresses. Several intra-mural softball teams have signed up and if the favorable weather continues the tournaments will begin soon. The prospects of a good quarter miler coming up for the Bearcats are better with the performance of Chester Parks in the Peru meet. Although Parks did not capture first place, he did show plenty of speed and grit.

University President Speaks for Education

Lexington, Ky. — (ACP)—Dr. Herman Lee Donovan, president of the University of Kentucky, has designated a sticker to be used by educational institutions on their mailing to their country's services, pointing out that "education is defense," and material, urging prospective students to prepare while they wait for a call that they can best serve their country, during the period of waiting, by going to college. A number of colleges have adopted the insignia as a standard slogan for the duration of the war and are using the design on their publications.

Americans Healthier Says Iowa Professor

Iowa, City.—(ACP)—The average American draftee is a pretty healthy fellow, stouter and stronger than his contemporary in the English army, Prof. C. H. McLoey of the University of Iowa physical education department asserts. Professor McLoey, now doing research work for the army air corps, declared "English youths aren't nearly as well developed as Americans of the same age." "Our boys show better reflexes and quick reactions and are much heavier through the chest and shoulders."

University of Michigan Conserves Automobiles

Ann Arbor, Mich. — (ACP)—War economies in use of trucks and automobiles are rapidly bearing results at the University of Michigan, according to Edward C. Pardon, superintendent of buildings and grounds, who says when and by whom university-owned vehicles are to be used. Six heavy trucks of 15 formerly used by the University storehouse and buildings and grounds departments have been put in dead storage for the duration and will be used only in emergency, Mr. Pardon says. Similar reductions, he said, may be made in other departments as soon as studies of actual needs are completed. All university-owned passenger cars and station wagons have been pooled and must be requisitioned for use by staff members. Requisitions are approved only when common carrier facilities cannot provide the services needed, Mr. Pardon said.

Hero Graduate Is Toast of Washington State College

Pullman, Wash. — (ACP)—The top military student of his time on the State College of Washington campus—Earl R. Tash—is already becoming a legendary figure as a mighty aerial fighter in the Far East. Tash has received the Distinguished Flying Cross for his feats in the Lingayen Gulf area of the Philippines. Tash was cadet colonel in 1939, the highest military post a student can attain. He was likewise first sergeant of Scabbard and Blade, military honorary; captain of WSC's rifle team which swept 37 out of 44 matches against the nation's best collegiate riflemen; and a member of the best combat squad in summer training at Fort George Wright. Bruce Griffing, Iowa State college graduate student, has been awarded a Roosevelt fellowship for further study at the University of San Marcos, Lima, Peru.

NAVY ANNOUNCEMENT TO COLLEGE FRESHMEN AND SOPHOMORES 17^{THRU} 19TH

You want to serve your country! Why not serve where your college training will do the most good?

Under the Navy's newest plan, you can enlist now and continue in college. If you make a good record, you may qualify within two years to become a Naval Officer—on the sea or in the air.

Who may qualify

80,000 men per year will be accepted under this new plan. If you are between the ages of 17 and 19 inclusive and can meet Navy physical standards, you can enlist now as an Apprentice Seaman in the Naval Reserve. You will be in the Navy. But until you have finished two calendar years, you will remain in college, taking regular college courses under your own professors. Your studies will emphasize mathematics, physics and physical training.

After you have successfully completed 1 1/2 calendar years of work, you will be given a written examination prepared by the Navy. This examination is competitive. It is designed to select the best men for training as Naval Officers.

How to become an Officer

If you rank sufficiently high in the examination and can meet the physical standards, you will have your choice of two courses — each leading to an officer's commission:

1. You may volunteer for training as an Aviation Officer. In this case you will be permitted to finish at least the second calendar year of your college work, after which you will be ordered to active duty for training to become an officer-pilot. Approximately 20,000 men a year will be accepted for Naval Aviation.

2. Or you will be selected for training as a Deck or Engineering Officer. In this case you will be allowed to continue your college work until you have received your degree.

DON'T WAIT . . . ACT TODAY

1. Take this announcement to the Dean of your college.

2. Or go to the nearest Navy Recruiting Station.

3. Or mail coupon below for FREE BOOK giving full details.

After graduation you will be ordered to active duty for training to become a Deck or Engineering Officer. Approximately 15,000 men a year will be accepted.

If you do not qualify for special officer's training, you will be allowed to finish the second calendar year of college, after which you will be ordered to active duty at a Naval Training Station as Apprentice Seaman.

Those who fail to pass their college work at any time may be ordered to active duty at once as Apprentice Seaman.

Your pay starts with active duty.

Here's a real opportunity. A chance to enlist in your country's service now without giving up your college training . . . a chance to prove by that same training that you are qualified to be an officer in the Navy.
